Notes on Midterm-Project You Just Submitted
(C Programming for Beginners)

Thanks for submitting your midterm. I will be grading your midterm in coming days.

In the meantime, do a code walk through of a model solution attached.

It is only for your education purposes, please do not share or post anywhere outside of this class. Thank you for understanding.

Also, remember that no two people will write the code same way, so, that means model solution is one of the ways to write, you can be innovative, and you can write on your own way as well.

Also, do not resubmit your midterm after this
